EPISCOPALIAN.

The Sunday school of the Episcopal church held their entertainment Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The programme consisted of carols and recitations. A beautiful Christmas tree delighted the little ones, containing as it did, many g fts for them.

PRESBYTERIAN.

At the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock a happy crowd of Sunday school people gathered for the purpose of holding their Christmas exercises. With beautiful decorations, a large lighted star, and a ladder of golden deeds, the surroundings were attractive. The exercises consisted of music and recitations, delightfully rendered. Santa Claus, a pistinguished personage, was present, to the delight of all, old and young.

A handsome clock was given to Rev. Thornton Whaing by the Sunday Rowan, of Spottswood, Augusta school, Mr. M. W. Paxton, in a felicitous speech, making the presentation. Dr. Whaling respended with appropriate remarks.

METHODIST.

The Methodist church was filled Tuesday night at 7 o'clock, by members and friends of the Sunday school to witness a delightfully rendered programme, "The Crowning of Christmas," The plot was interesting, the various holidays seeking to be crowned as the best. Christmas, represented by Santa Claus was, by common consent, awarded the crown, which was placed on his head by a lovely little tot.

The exercises were introduced by a short address of welcome by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. T. Wightman.

The decorations were beautiful, consisting of ivy trimmings and an elaborately decorated Christmas tree.

The exercises at the various churches closed with the distribution of a treat to the members of the school, consisting of candy, nuts and cranges.

COLONEL CATLETT IN NOR-FOLK.

Colonel Robert Catlett was last week n Norfolk and Portsmouth paying official visits to the Pythian lolges of those cities. The Virginian-Pilot, of Norfolk, had the following complimentary notice of his visit:

Col. Robert Catlett, of Lexington grand vice charcellor of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythians, of Virginia, paid an official visit last night to Portsmouth Lodge No. 16, of this city. A great outpouring of the Pythians greeted this distinguished visitor. who delivered an excelent address. He charmed his hearers with his power of speech, filled, as were Lis remarks, with the living principles of the order. He is a magnetic speaker and his audience was arawn towards him, and at the conclusion of his impressive speech he was applauded to the echo, and the membership showed their appreciation of his visit by the hearty hand shakes he received.

V. M. I. RECEPTION.

The Cadets of the Virginia Military Institute gave a very enjoyable reception, in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., to the young ladies of Lexington, Thurs day night, December the 22nd.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, only a small number of young ladies was present. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated in red, white and orange, the colors of FIRES.

Two fire alarms were sounded last Wednesday night. The first, shortly after 7 o'clock, proved to be at the home of Miss Maggie Freeland, opposite the Virginia Military Institute. The fire originated from a coal oil stove, and did considerable damage to dealers (in Lexington) in genuine White " Miss Susan Beard, of Brownsburg, the room in which it originated. The corps of cadets responded promptly, as did also the Lexingt n Fire Department, but the flames were extinguished by the cadets without the services of the department.

The second alarm was given shortly after 2 o'clock Thursday morning, the fire occuring in the kitchen of the residence of John H. Moore, on Letcher gift than a good pair of Gloves. A nice asavenue. The fire was quickly extinavenue. The fire was quickly extingu sted by Hose Company No. 8, before much damage was done, and the work of the firemen was done so quickly and quietly that most of those living in the immensate neighborhood knew nothing shout it nothing about it.

BONDED DEBT PAID.

We understand from a reliable source that the whole of the bonded debt of the Virginia -Military Institute has been paid. This is gratifying to every friend of our State Military School.
